

I would like to hear about the new FCC regulations being considered. I also would like to know why more about this has not been covered in our television news broadcasts. Why isn't the public being informed.